

Watch for unofficial voter registration notices

City does not mail notices to residents

If you see an envelope in your mailbox with this voter registration information in it, before you fill it out, visit: myvote.wi.gov.

That's the message from Sheboygan City Susan Richards about a voter registration mailing from the Voter Participation Center, a voting rights group based in Washington D.C.

Inside is a letter, along with a pre-filled voter registration application that contains your contact information and voter information. The group is trying to reach people it believes have not or are not registered to vote. These letters are NOT from the City of Sheboygan.

We believe approximately 1,400 of these letters went to City of Sheboygan residents - though we are not sure which residents received the mailing. Some may have already arrived by mail, others may arrive now through next week.

The group is using public voter registration information, available to anyone, though the information they are using appears to be outdated. Residents receiving the notices are then directed to mail them to our City Clerk's office, using an enclosed envelope that is pre-addressed to the City Clerk's office.

The ones we have received so far are for people who are already registered, no longer live at that address or in some cases, were sent back by relatives of residents who are now deceased.

If you are unsure if you are registered to vote, or want to confirm your registration, visit: myvote.wi.gov. Once there, click the "My Voter Info" tab at the top of the page. If you need to register to vote, you can do so by clicking the "Register to Vote" tab also found at the top of the page. Sheboygan residents can also register in person at the City Clerk's office now through November 4.

You can go to the Voter Participation Center's website to unsubscribe from future mailings, or call them at (202) 659-9570. You can also call our City Clerk's office for questions at 920-459-3361.

The Wisconsin State Elections Commission will be doing an official mailing of voter registration information later this month.

If you have any questions regarding voting, contact the City Clerk's office at (920) 459-3361.

Dear _____

According to public records, you no longer reside at _____ but do not appear to have registered to vote at your new address. It is important to update your registration if you have moved and want to vote.

If you have recently updated your registration or are ineligible to vote, please disregard this notice. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Page Gardner
